Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Mame Paxton was a passenger to Salt Lake.

In the United States Military academy. Kensel will return at once to his home, weeks somerville, one of the suburbs of Boston.

The reason given for Kensel's resignation is failing eyesight, but from the family the real cause has been learned. Early in June he was in the hospital on account of trouble with his eyes. It was not the season of study in West Point and he never had any difficulty with his eyes previous to entering the academy.

The statement made by the family is that while standing on his head in a tent, which was the rule for the "plebes" whenever an upper classman entered, Kensel was kicked in the right eye by an upper classman and was sent to the hospital. Kensel was not seriously hurt and was able to leave the hospital in a few days. Soon after, while attempting to swallow a teaspoonful of tobasco sauce, he choked and it spilled over his handkerchief. He was blindfolded with the same handkerchief afterward and the sauce got into his eyes.

On account of his physical condition he has he in unable to do his full duty in the an my and had to resign. Kensel was appointed in 1839.

NEW PASTOR ARRIVES.

Rev. Frank Barnett of East Side Baptist Church.

Rev. Frank Barnett, the successor of Rev. Ernest Shanks as pastor of the Eas. Side Baptist church, arrived in the city yesterday morning. Mr. Barnett was accompanied by one of his young sons, but his wife and other two sons will not arrive for a month or more.

The new pastor of the East Side church, which has been without a minister for several months, comes from Pontiac, Mich., where, for the past seven years, he has been engaged in a most successful work in the Baptist church there. The church here has, on one or two other occasions, extended calls to Mr. Barnett, but his congregation in Pontiac would not release him.

Mr. Barnett is well known among the Protestant clergy of this city and state, he having been engaged in re-ligious work in the state for seven years prior to 1892. Five years of that years prior to 1892. Five years of that time he spent as pastor of the Baptist church at Ogden, where he did a very successful work. For two years he held the position of general superintendent of Baptist missions in Utah and Idaho, and spent much of his time in Salt Lake. On leaving here he accepted the position of pastor of the Baptist church in Denver, remaining there until called to the church in Pontiae.

Ordered to Eat Pie.

Ordered to Eat Pre.

(Kansas City News.)

On Aug. 7, 1861, while still in southeastern Missouri. Grant was made brigadier general, to his own great surprise. Of his methods of discipline Owen Wister tells a singular story. The command was marching and food was scarce. A lieutenant, with an advance guard, reached a farm house and upon infroming its mistress that he was General Grant received a copious meal. Presently Grant himself rode to the same door and asked for food. "General Grant has just left here," he was told, "and has eaten everything."

A pie did remain, and for this the general gave the woman 50 cents, requesting her to keep it until called for. Ridling on to camp he ordered grand parade at once, and to the astonished assembly the acting assistant adjutant general read the following order:

"Lieutenant W— of the Indiana cavalry, having on this day eaten everything in Mrs. Selvidge's house, at the crossing of the Ironton & Pocahontas, and Black River & Cape Girardeau roads, except one pumpan pie, Lieutenant W— is hereby ordered to return with an escort of 100 cavalry and eat that pie also."

Turkeys Sold on the Heof.

Turkeys Sold on the Heof.

(Mexican Herald.)

Yesterday afternoon two turkey herders drove a flock of over thirty birds through the streets of Ortega and Tiburcio, leisurely offering them for sale as they went along. The men were hardy mountain specimens, the cut of their clothing showing they had come from some distant pueblo. They carried whips, with short wooden stocks and long lashes, and when a customer halled them from an adjacent zaguan they promptly rounded up the turkeys, caught the one designated by the tail and handed him over for examination, the result being that many Sunday dinners were bought, as it were, "on
